

1. List questions you have about the reading.

Title:

Author:

Date of publication:

Author's thesis:

2. To what extent does available information about the author help you to understand his perspective, or point of view?

Author's evidence:

a.

b.

c.

d.

e.

3. After reading the article, what questions might you ask that would suggest a different thesis?

Author's conclusion about the significance of the topic:

Write a paragraph in your own words explaining the gist of the article, the nature of evidence, and the significance of the topic.